

Today

Godley & Creme

One, two, three, four

If I turned upon you and I make it look easy
Today, today, today
She smiles and keeps me hungry
Today, today, today

Better she could look upon my face and not see me
Today, today, today
And dry my eyes completely
Today, today, today

Let me be for there is time enough
To raise an eyebrow
To raise your eyes
To mine

You feel the same way too
And I am drawn away from you
Not so easy to explain away
It takes a foolish man to try
I knew as soon as I put pen to paper
I knew as much somehow
So show me it's better by far and away
And I'll show you that someday
Is a very important day
