Get Up, Get Out!

Godsmack

Why are you laughing as if you're my friend? I'm gonna slap you again and again and again I like you better when you go away Gotta get up, gotta get out, gotta get up You gotta go away you were the love of my life for a day I kind of thought that You'd feel the same what...No way! Consider you a figment of my imagination But will you every go away?
