

I Don't Belong

Godsmack

Secrets buried deep at the bottom of my heart
And beaten throughout every color of my life, I fall apart

I don't belong, I don't fit in
I'm dead and gone, I thought they might come waiting
I'm holding on to what's within
I'm coming strong with everything I can

Reaching, does anyone still believe in who I am?
Bleeding, every part of me is being taken from deep within
Understand, it's who I am

I don't belong, I don't fit in
I'm dead and gone, I thought they might come waiting
I'm holding on to what's within
I'm coming strong with everything I can
I don't belong, I don't fit in
I'm dead and gone, I thought they might come waiting

I'll find my way out, I know it can't be long
My end of days I'm hoping will be gone

I don't belong, I don't fit in
I'm dead and gone, I thought they might come waiting
I'm holding on to what's within
I'm coming strong with everything I can
I don't belong, I don't fit in
I'm dead and gone, I thought they might come waiting
I'm holding on to what's within
I'm coming strong with everything I can
Understand, it's who I am
