

Inside Yourself

Godsmack

Falling back into these complications
Sifting through these ashes from my grave
Trying to find my way

Staring into an endless situation
Dragged into these dirty waters again
These waters you pushed me in

I try to believe in myself, when everyone's telling me I'm worthless
And if you think I like it
Well, I'm telling you this time's different
I'm not broken
You better take a good look inside yourself

Twisting everything, so tight around me
Like a serpent that wraps around my neck
And showing me no respect

You won't break me. You won't fake me
You won't rub my nose in shit for one more minute
I'm swearing to God on this

I try to believe in myself, when everyone's telling me I'm worthless
And you can think I like it
Well, I'm telling you this time's different
I'm not broken
You better take a good look inside yourself

I try to believe in myself, when everyone's telling me I'm worthless
Yeah, and you think I like it
Well, I'm telling you this time's different
I'm not broken
You better take a good look inside yourself

Inside yourself
Inside yourself
Inside yourself

I try to believe in myself, when everyone's telling me I'm worthless
And you can think I like it
Well, I'm telling you this time's different
I'm not broken
You better take a good look inside yourself

I try to believe in myself, I gotta believe in myself
When everyone's telling me, I'm worthless
Well, I'm telling you this time's different
I'm not broken
You better take a good look inside yourself

Inside yourself
Inside yourself
Inside yourself
