```
Screaming
Every night I wake from dreaming
That the world I know I'm leaving
It's better off this way
Shut up
My head is feeling fucked up
Angry, nervous, tensed up
I don't think I'm okay
Save yourself from me
Cause I'm about to change, about to break
Cause everybody wants me to be somebody else
I'm asking for your help
Cause I don't trust myself
It feels so infinite
It feels so infinite
It feels so infinite
It feels so infinite
Seconds
Tick away all day, I'm checking
On the bomb we made expecting
To trip the wire and run like hell
Save yourself from me
Cause I'm about to change, about to break
Cause everybody wants me to be somebody else
I'm asking for your help
Cause I don't trust myself
It feels so infinite
It feels so infinite
It feels so infinite
It feels so infinite
I'm not lying I'm trying the best that I can
I thought you got what you wanted, don't you understand
That I'm running much faster that I ever did before
And you're not in the position to make that demand
It feels so infinite
It feels so infinite
It feels so infinite
It feels so infinite
```

It feels so infinite It feels so infinite
