

KILLSWITCH

Goldfinger

Waking up and you're not there
Shattered glass is everywhere
I lost my mind, I lost myself
Now it's too late

Cigarettes burning in the tray
When the ashes took your place
Should've known I was replaced
When you said forever

You pulled the killswitch
Now I'm gone, gone, gone
You pulled the killswitch
Now I'm gone, gone, gone
I was just an ex on your hit list
Should've known you'd never miss
You pulled the killswitch
Now I'm gone, gone, gone

You burn me out
Time and time again
I keep coming back
But never win
You're like a drug
I can't escape
Thought it was love, but

The cigarettes burning in the tray
When the ashes took your place
Should've known I was replaced
When you said forever

You pulled the killswitch
Now I'm gone, gone, gone
You pulled the killswitch
Now I'm gone, gone, gone
I was just an ex on your hit list
Should've known you'd never miss
You pulled the killswitch
Now I'm gone, gone, gone

You ask me if I'm doing fine
Am I okay?
Do I have anything to say?
Since you left, I'm such a wreck
If you're sorry, it's too late
You pulled the killswitch

You pulled the killswitch
Now I'm gone, gone, gone
You pulled the killswitch
Now I'm gone, gone, gone
I was just an ex on your hit list

You pulled the killswitch

Now I'm gone, gone, gone
You pulled the killswitch
I was just an ex on your hit list
