

Standing On The Beach

Goldfinger

Yesterday was always gonna be wasted
Yesterday was always gonna be a mess
Cause my head says stop what you're doing
Get undressed, it's not where you're going
It's where you've been, you've been

I can't leave you staring at the sea, no
I can't leave you staring on the beach
Cause I'm right on track to losing you
Right on track to losing, yeah
I can't leave you staring at the sea, no

Oh oh oh oh oh-oh
Oh oh oh oh oh-oh

Yesterday was always gonna be faded
Yesterday was always gonna be a test
But my head says we'll drown in the ocean
It's your time to just getting older
You're paralyzed, paralyzed

I can't leave you staring at the sea, no
I can't leave you staring on the beach
Cause I'm right on track to losing you
Right on track to losing, yeah
I can't leave you staring at the sea, no

Thought forever ever
I would be your always
Thought we'd never ever
See our world go sideways
I lost control so long ago
Lost so long ago

I can't leave you staring at the sea, no
I can't leave you staring on the beach
Cause I'm right on track to losing you
Right on track to losing, yeah
I can't leave you staring at the sea, no

Oh oh oh oh oh-oh
Oh oh oh oh oh-oh
