

Garden

GOLDN

If home is where the heart is
I'll find you in a garden with beauty like the roses
We'll get lost in the moments
If ever we're departed
Hold on to this promise
No matter where the road ends
We'll always have the garden

If home is where the heart is
I'll find you in a garden with beauty like the roses
We'll get lost in the moments
If ever we're departed
Hold on to this promise
No matter where the road ends
We'll always have the garden

We'll always have the garden

We'll always have the garden

If home is where the heart is
I'll find you in a garden with beauty like the roses
We'll get lost in the moments
If ever we're departed
Hold on to this promise
No matter where the road ends
We'll always have the garden

We'll always have the garden

We'll always have the garden
