

Lay Here

GOLDN

Speak to me gently in the words you know
When the lights go down and you're comfortable
You can give me all your love if you take it in the morn
Til the sun comes up I'll be what you want

Love don't lay here anymore

I'll only let you down if you get too close
Every chance you give is a chance I'll blow
When our clothes fall off and I turn you on
Til the sun comes up I'll be what you want

Love don't stay here anymore

I'll only let you down if you get too close
Every chance you give is a chance I'll blow
When our clothes fall off and I turn you on
Til the sun comes up I'll be what you want

Love don't live here anymore

Angel eyes with a heaven flow
I can take you places your savior won't
Dressed in white for a funeral
You'll break your heart trying to find my soul
