

Trust

Goldroom

I don't wanna know this feeling
We both know where it goes
Yellow flowers on the garden path
They will take you home

Let it go, you got no reason
Warm honey on your tongue
Kick drum banging on your chest
Just keep humming along

Trust in you
Trust in you
Trust in you
And everybody knows

Can't let go I'm stuck in sunshine
Waiting for a season's change
Poppies falling in my coffee cup
But the lines won't fill the page

Give me sleep I had a vision
A fever dream of what you did
Just want to float into a crystal sky
You've got the goods give me a lift

Trust in you
Trust in you
Trust in you
And everybody knows

Won't you tell me all your secrets
I won't tell you mine
And I'll use them all against you
To ruin you and I

And everybody knows

Trust in you
Trust in you
Trust in you
And everybody knows

Trust in you
Trust in you
Trust in you
And everybody knows

Trust in you
Trust in you
Trust in you
Trust in you
