

ANGELS IN HELL

Gomey

All I'm tryna do is get by
But I had to put my plans to the side
'Cause these people tryna ruin my life
And they know it
So now I'm always staying up late
Laying in bed wide awake
They steal, they lie, they take
And they know it
Yeah they know it

I rest my head on my pillow case
But in my dreams where the devil waits
I wish I had an angel tonight
But there's no angels in hell
To pick me up where I fell
So my soul I will sell
To make things right
Can't escape from the dark
Got a hole in my heart
Yeah I'm falling apart
Still I try

I still
Wake up with these bags on my eyes
Put a smile on as a disguise
Deal with my demons inside I don't show it
Waste time thinking 'bout mistakes
Don't trust nobody, they're all snakes
Hide my struggles and my pain
I don't show it
Yeah they know it

I rest my head on my pillow case
But in my dreams where the devil waits
I wish I had an angel tonight
But there's no angels in hell
To pick me up where I fell
So my soul I will sell
To make things right
Can't escape from the dark
Got a hole in my heart
Yeah I'm falling apart
Still I try
