

Dancing

Gomey

I keep on running
I keep on running from my grave
I'm caught in the chase
But I just keep on slipping away
I feel like there's something
That's always coming after me
It's hunting to slay
But I have no fear that I convey

Been acting a fool
And that's your taboo
I'm lighting the fuse again
For always abusing me
Don't act so confused
You ain't got no excuse
For trying to ruin me
I'm betting that you agree

I don't understand
Why I've been dancing with the devil
Forever
I won't let him in
And that's been since I can remember
But he won't let up

Oh he's becoming (Ohh)
Oh he's becoming so damn brave
My world ain't safe
But being afraid don't change anything
I made my assumption
This evil's never going away
No need to escape
'Cause I'm not scared and that won't change

Been acting a fool
And that's your taboo
I'm lighting the fuse again
For always abusing me
Don't act so confused
You ain't got no excuse
For trying to ruin me
I'm betting that you agree

I don't understand
Why I've been dancing with the devil
Forever
I won't let him in
And that's been since I can remember
But he won't let up
