

Hero

Gomey

Can't you see you're not ready?
My arms are gettin' heavy from the weight of the world
It's up to me and I'm getting sweaty
Is it too much to hold?

A thousand voices whisper noise, they
Plan my fall from grace

Oh-oh, I know
Say you want a hero, you don't
Say you want a savior, pull you off the ground
Then you wanna blame me when you're falling down
Oh-oh, I know
Don't wanna be your hero, oh no
When's it gonna sink in that we're sinking and falling apart?
'Cause love don't last in the dark

Can't you see you got old?
You waited too long and you let time go
Placed your bets, when it all comes down
Fold your cards and you blame the house

A thousand voices whisper noise, they
Plan my fall from grace

Oh-oh, I know
Say you want a hero, you don't
Say you want a savior, pull you off the ground
Then you wanna blame me when you're falling down
Oh-oh, I know
Don't wanna be your hero, oh no
When's it gonna sink in that we're sinking and falling apart?
'Cause love don't last in the dark

When you're falling down

Oh-oh, I know
Say you want a hero, you don't
