

Hollywood's Bleeding

Gomey

Hollywood

Hollywood's bleeding, vampires feeding
Darkness turns to dust
Everyone's gone but no one's leaving
Nobody left but us
Tryna chase a feeling but we'll never feel it
Riding on the last train home
Dying in our sleep, we're living out a dream
We only make it out alone

I just keep on hoping that you call me
You say you wanna see me but you can't right now
You never took the time to get to know me
We're scared of losing something that we never found
We're running outta reasons
But we can't let go
Yeah Hollywood is bleeding
But we call it home

Hollywood is bleeding
Hollywood is bleeding

Outside the winter sky turning gray
City up in smoke, it's only ash when it rains
Howl at the moon and go to sleep in the day
Love for everybody till the drugs fade away
In the morning blocking out the sun with the shades
She gotta check her pulse to tell herself that she okay
It seem like dying young is an honor
But who'd be at my funeral? I wonder

I go out and all they eyes on me
I show out, do you like what you see?
And now they closing in on me
Let 'em sharpen all they teeth
This is more than I can handle, blood in my Lambo
Wish I could go, I'm losing hope
I light a candle, some Palo Santos
For all these demons, wish I could just go home

I just keep on hoping that you call me
You say you wanna see me but you can't right now
You never took the time to get to know me
We're scared of losing something that we never found
We're running outta reasons
But we can't let go
Yeah Hollywood is bleeding
But we call it home

Hollywood is bleeding
But we call it home
Hollywood is bleeding
But we call it home
Hollywood is bleeding
But we call it home
