Gomey

I lost a little bit more than sleep
Tryna maintain, it's so hard for me to breathe
Not a single tear on my cheek
But my smile hides more than their eyes got to meet, yeah
Butterflies open up their wings
Got my heartbeat buzzing, and I pray it don't sting
Love is just a drug that I need
But the comedown's worse than anything I've seen

If there was a time to believe
Now would be so damn sweet
You got me down on my knees
Would you please

Start this fire
Fuel my desire
I ain't lying
When I say you're the one I need, yeah
Nobody's near you
Clearer than a rearview
Baby, let me hear you
Crying out for me
Crying out for

Baby, let me hear you
Crying out for me
Crying out for me

I never meant to disrupt your peace
Now you're thinking out loud, "What's in this for me?"
You're always having instinct to leave
But the further you run is the more I become naïve, yeah
Baby, just try to take a leap
Fly away with me over abandoned seas
Oh, my shoulder's where you'll sleep
I'll protect our love until my heart stops beating

If there was a time to believe
Now would be so damn sweet
You got me down on my knees
Would you please

Start this fire
Fuel my desire
I ain't lying
When I say you're the one I need, yeah
Nobody's near you
Clearer than a rearview
Baby, let me hear you
Crying out for me
Crying out for

Crying out for, crying out for
Crying out for me
Baby, let me hear you
Crying out for me
