

Scars

Gomey

Baby I can't stand it when you call me
On the weekend when you want somebody to come and spoil you rotten
Undefeated when you try

I can't lie, you are easy on the eyes
But all of that surface shit don't last over time
See I
Take nothing for granted
So please understand that
When the pleasure feels magic, I

Let my heart go blind
Tranquility vibes
Oh I
Built this paradise
Off roses and red wine
Yea, making meaningless love might leave scars
Scars that I don't hide
(Scars that I don't hide)

Still I'm so predictable
I can't say no
To no feelings involved
See I

I can't lie, you are easy on the eyes
But all of that surface shit don't last over time
See I
Take nothing for granted
So please understand that
When the pleasure feels magic, I

Let my heart go blind
Tranquility vibes
Oh I
Built this paradise
Off roses and red wine
Yea making meaningless love might leave scars
Scars that I don't hide
(Scars that I don't hide)

Yea making meaningless love might leave scars
Scars that I don't hide
(Scars that I don't hide)

Still I'm so predictable
I can't say no
To no feelings involved
See I
Take nothing for granted
So please understand that
When the pleasure feels magic
