

Everything Is Wonderfall

Gone Is Gone

Your stare has become darker
You are selling me disorder
Rude is standing on the edge of all that's getting worse

One thousand reaches out attempted
Another fleeting act of pantomime
Spaces are vacant and become hollow
Breaks are far and few for what it's worth

Lose the will to wait any longer
Urge to kill is growing stronger
Ruins remain untouched and true
Shedding off the skin of all that's getting worse

Spaces are vacant and become hollow
Breaks are far and few for what it's worth

Too many places appear the same
And your reflection mirrors the game
Take one break and fall to your knees
Dance in the sunshine, swim in the sea
So many faces appear the same
And your reflection mirrors the game
Take one break and fall to your knees
Dance in the sunshine, swim in the sea

Inked into your skin
Stories of the past
And we fade in time
Take ahold of yourself

Can you soak it in?
Circle is the path
None of your concern
Darkness has arrived

Wonder
Fall
Wonder
Fall
Wonder
Fall
Wonder
Fall
