

One Divided

Gone Is Gone

Now turn it all around
We will crawl each within the crowd
This is wrong, difference in now
Still hold on, it will all come down
It's breaking

One divided me, and it breaks
One divided me to silence
One divided me, and it breaks
One divided me to silence

Go break the chain of ground
Listen up, tempt the fate of all
This is wrong, don't let it fade
This is wrong, don't let it fade
It's breaking

One divided me, and it breaks
One divided me to silence
One divided me, and it breaks
One divided me to silence

(This is wrong, how long)
Stand by storm and rain
Seek shelter
Finding your way back home
Like hell to fight and do what is right
Go and see the one

One divided me, and it breaks
One divided me...
One divided me, and it breaks
One divided me to silence
