

Phantom Limb

Gone Is Gone

Can you save us all
Unleash your soul
Leaving loyalty at the door
Cannot save you all
Complete the ride
Filling spaces that you void

Throwing chance into wind
On we play for a hundred hours
Ending up where we began

Of all the days we spent
Rescued like a dog
Wired from abandonment
A vessel for being alive

Can you save us all
Unleash your soul
Leaving loyalty at the door
Cannot save you all
Complete the ride
Filling spaces that you void

Phantom limbs are crying out
Sights and sounds are drowning out
Our phantom limbs are crying out
Sights and sounds are drowning out
