

This Chapter

Gone Is Gone

Lay down
Fade out

Erase your mind
Whatever hurts you
Your eyes they're dark
Like deep oceans

Too late, too late
Close our eyes, end this chapter
Too late, too late
Close our eyes, end this chapter

Flow with the tide into the sky
Energy high, my friend
Call of the wild, Father style
Bearing the gift of child
Eyes are blind, voices high
Face that won't let go
Dark gives light, speak your mind
Deepens all you know

Too late, too late
Close our eyes, end this chapter
Too late, too late
Close our eyes, end this chapter

Hands of the time let go
Won't let it go
Stick to me my friend
We are near the end
Stick with me my friend
We are near the end of our day
Hands of the time let go
Hands of the time let go
Won't let it go

Too late, too late
Close our eyes, end this chapter
Too late, too late
Close our eyes, close your eyes
