

Yesterday (ooh)
We finally said those things we can't unsay (ooh)
Through the blinds, I watched you speed away (ooh)
It might sounds crazy

But I ever thought it'd feel so good
Saying goodbye, wouldn't stop you even if I could

Yeah, my heart didn't break
When I broke into that old bottle
Of fancy champagne
I've been saving for the perfect time
You can't rain on my parade
Got my freedom, gonna celebrate
When you left, I was so damn ready
No tears fell, just confetti, ah-woo
No tears fell, just confetti, ah-woo

I see it now (ooh)
How you'd come home and kick the party out (ooh)
Just like my dreams, you'd turn the music down (ooh)
Now I'm singin' loud

And I never thought it'd sound so good
Saying goodbye, even better than I thought it would

Yeah, my heart didn't break
When I broke into that old bottle
Of fancy champagne
I've been saving for the perfect time
You can't rain on my parade
Got my freedom, gonna celebrate
When you left, I was so damn ready
No tears fell, just confetti, ah-woo
No tears fell, just confetti, ah-woo

The minute you walked out the door
There was a rainbow all over the floor
It's like Mardi Gras under my roof
Don't need a mop, I'm usin' a broom

Yeah, my heart didn't break
When I broke into that old bottle
Of fancy champagne
I've been saving for the perfect time
You can't rain on my parade
Got my freedom, gonna celebrate
When you left, I was so damn ready
No tears fell, just confetti, ah-woo, ooh, ooh
Just confetti, ah-woo, ooh, ooh

Ah-woo, ooh, ooh
When you left, it was so damn pretty
Ah-woo, ooh, ooh
