

Forever Reoccurring

Gong

There is only now you know
Proof, if proof be need be
It's happening all at once
And it always will be
It's coming round again
Annihilation
Put a fire to all you are
Your initiation

Is between the meaning of another meaning
And behind the meaning more
And behind the meaning is another meaning
And between the meaning more

Is the language binding
From the light inside the verse?
Do you need reminding
Of the meaning of the words?

Now it's going faster, always going faster
Really going faster now
Now it's going faster, always going faster
Really going faster now

All the moments that make up a life
Forever at once reoccurring
On the one side a devil alive
On the other an angel is stirring
Every birth has a dying inside
Planets rotate off their axes
In the fiery explosion of light
The universe also collapses

Unborn watchers at large
All and everyone
Unilluminated spiral
Inside and out

Pulsing signals, charge of the air
Cast no light at all
Never die and never changing
Outside and in

Spirits blink off and on
Disappear from sight
Neither dead nor living
Unborn watchers at large

[Refrain]
All the moments that make up a life
Forever at once reoccurring
On the one side a devil alive
On the other an angel stirring

Well this is the moment
And now is the time
You've forgotten to remember how

There is only now

If never I'm crazy
And ever you mind
While a million buzzing signals sound
White light all around
Light all borne around

Forever reoccurring
And ever we wind
Fast awaking through a timeless dream
None of this is real
All and you are me
