

Olde Fooles Game

Gong

we are all
young fooles
in an
olde fooles game

livin on a planet
that will
never be the same

tryin to build a wall
around a space with
yer name

tryin to make sense of the pleasure &
the pain

tryin hard
not to complain

we are
all young fooles
in an

old fooles game
living on a planet
that will
never be the same
around a
space with yr name

tryin to build a
bridge between the

spirit & the brain

tryin hard not to complain
