

Let the World Be Still

Good Charlotte

So the years keep passing on
And the [?] that you've become
Someone that you don't know
And your troubles fall like snow

Well we all just want a reason
(Well we all just want a reason)
To let it go, it's the season
And the angels sing

Let the world be still
Because it's Christmas tonight
Let your heart be filled
With love and light
Because it's Christmas time
Another Christmas tonight

Tell me has it been too long
Since you called someone you loved
Or is the pain still just too strong
To let the men out of the cold

You know we all just want a reason
(You know we all just want a reason)
To let it go, it's the season
And the angels sing

Let the world be still
Because it's Christmas tonight
Let your heart be filled
With love and light
Because it's Christmas time
Another Christmas tonight

If you love someone, say it so
You should be the one to let them know
Let it show

Let the world be still
Because it's Christmas tonight
Let your heart be filled
With love and light
Let the world be still
Because it's Christmas tonight
Let your heart be filled
With love and light
Because it's Christmas
Another Christmas
Because it's Christmas
Another Christmas tonight
