

Well all that to see on the one night
And I saw it all alright
Well how'd they get that thing inside?
It can't have been cheap, hope they got a fair price

And that's between you and me
But it don't look much different than it does on the TV
At least now I can say that we've been Pirates in the desert, and then you're home in a week

And you don't even know
Where the chorus line ends or where it begins
But I know that we'll keep singing it over again
And over, and over, and over, and over
And over, and over, and over, and over
Again

So you catch a fresh glimpse into hell
A man down and the cops broke his teeth and he was screaming fo r help
Well it's only here and that's how they'll tell it
All that sex and violence makes it so easy to sell it

And over there by the pyramid
Right next to the fountains and the Empire State Building
Could've sworn that I was present for the minute
No I never said thanks for that jacket

And you don't even know
That the chorus line ends or where it begins
But I know that we'll keep singing it over and over again
And over, and over, and over, and over
And over, and over, and over, and over
Again (And that's the sin)

No you don't even know
The chorus line ends or where it begins
But I know that we'll keep singing it over again
