

Run

Good Morning

Now that you got a break
From what keeps you moving
You could put your books right back up on the shelf

Ah, you better run from it
What are you doing?
Yeah, it's good to take your time
And stop repeating

Now if you find a place
Where love is blooming
Sit down, be kind, and just enjoy yourself

Ah, you better run from it
What's really worth doing?
Take a minute to relax your mind
Find a place that's soothing
Everybody's gotta find some space
To call their own
'Cause without you see the skin ripped from
Your flesh and bone
