

Every Morning

Good Old War

Every morning, every morning
Every morning I wake up
Wondering what you gonna do
Every hour, every hour
Every hour I waste
I wanna waste it with you

I don't know
How I can let you go
Cause when I let you go
You take my heart and soul

Laying here dreaming
Thinking about what I've been told
All of the love you show was all you know
Love is a flower
Pull out the petal from a rose
Show you that I will always love you so

I don't know
How I can let you go
Cause when I let you go
You take my heart and soul
All my friends
Will call me skin and bones
Cause when I let you go
You take my heart and soul
Oh know

You know I've been trying
Trying my hardest to forget
I should be laughing but I'm crying instead

I don't know
How I can let you go
Cause when I let you go
You take my heart and soul
All my friends
Will call me skin and bones
Cause when I let you go
You take my heart and soul
Oh know

Every morning, every morning
Every morning, every morning
Every morning
