

I'm The One

Good Old War

I'm waiting at the back door standing in the rain
I wonder if you care, or if this is just a game
It may not be love, but I'm the one you dream of
I'm waiting at the backdoor, standing in the rain
You don't want to be alone, I know

And I don't want to go home
I don't want to go home
Even if it feels wrong
I'm the one you want

I'm waiting at the backdoor standing in the rain
I wonder if I'll ever be in your arms again
I made a mistake I shouldn't have made
I'm waiting at the backdoor standing in the rain
You don't want to be alone, I know

And I don't want to go home
I don't want to go home
Even if it feels wrong, oh

I don't want to go home
I don't want to go home
I don't want to go home
I don't want to go home
Even if it feels wrong
I'm the one you want
