Only a Number

Good Old War

Once, the truth was so hard to find
I can't count how many times she said
It's only a number, there's no other I could love more then you

At one time I was innocent, I couldn't be bothered
I know I'm the same still, trying to get by
With my heart on my sleeve I'm waiting to get hurt, but I know
I'm offering something that you can believe
All my life, all my light

She said, we're far from our destination
We may drift from time to time
But how far? Who cares
It's only a number, there's no other, I could love more then yo

Love, I've said it a thousand times
There are countless reasons why it's true
It's only a number, there's no other I could love more then you
It's only a number, there's no other I could love more then you
