Bittersweet

Good Riddance

You try to tell me where your heart is you say there's nothing wrong and the honesty in your eyes tells me that I should be strong
I don't want to get wrapped up in morbid reflection because that's a pessimistic space and the situations I imagine are lost somewhere in you face because when were together it's bittersweet now your with him and I miss you I feel somehow incomplete I try to stand on my own I take it one day at a time and if you ask me how I'm doing I bite my lip and say I'm fine

well I don't know I can't sing can't sleep do anything I just know I'll be there waiting for you to come around

I know you tell me all the time that I worry too much but not a day goes by where I'm not thinking about you what we had what we could have if you just give me one more chance I miss you and it's so bittersweet
