

Anywhere the Wind Blows

Goodbye June

Greyhound racin'
Pack o' smokes
Sipping libations and I sneak a toke
Roll all my worries
Right out the window
And I'll go anywhere the wind blows

It's overrated
It's all a joke
Girl your lovin' makes me wanna
Hit the road
I'll roll all my worries
Paper tight to choke
And I'll go anywhere the wind blows
Ooh, anywhere the wind blows
Yeah

I sold my soul for a minute there
Shaved my face and she cut my hair
Now I know I can go
Anywhere the wind blows
Left my bags and left my cares
Left your ass standing there
Now I know I can go
Anywhere the wind blows

You keep calling
I'm not turning back
Every time I hear your voice I wanna
Take a bath
I sell all my worries
Like a stolen Van Gogh
And I'll go anywhere the wind blows
Ooh, anywhere the wind blows
Yeah

I sold my soul for a minute there
Shaved my face and she cut my hair
Now I know I can go
Anywhere the wind blows
Now I know I can go
Anywhere the wind blows

Do you have a laugh of what [?] could be?
All the lies, all the bullshit, I see right through it
The games, the charades
I saw you pray for old times

I sold my soul for a minute there
Shaved my face and she cut my hair
Now I know I can go

Anywhere the wind blows
Anywhere the wind blows
