

Everlasting Love

Goodbye June

Girl, where you going?
I've seen you here twice before
The world, it keeps on rolling
And I've never had a place to go

Baby, I can't shake you
In my head stuck like a song
Your melodies, your words, the bees and the birds
We're humming to it all night long

I've been waiting for so long
You came a-running
Right into my arms

Everlasting love
Always lifting me up
Everlasting love
Never can get me enough

Lady, it's no illusion
It's not from a mystical land
This love is a solid foundation
And I'm happy right where I stand

I've been waiting for so long
You came a-running
Right into my arms

Can you be my lover?
Can you be true?
Never find another
None as fine as you

Everlasting love
Always lifting me up
Everlasting love
Never can get me enough
Everlasting love
Always lifting me up
Everlasting love
Never can get me enough
Never can get me enough

I've been waiting for so long
You came a-running

Can you be my lover?
Can you be true?
Never find another
None as fine as you

My everlasting love
Always lifting me up
Everlasting love
Never can get me enough
My everlasting love
Always lifting me up

Everlasting love
Never can get me enough
