

I hear the thunder, it's pissing and pouring
Roll over now and let's burn this morning
I've been eyeing your kind for so long
This life we chose you can bet your soul

Ain't nobody stopping me
I am burning to run
I'm a goldmaker baby
I'm gonna go make a son

Up on that hilltop rain or through shine
You can be there, I'll be losing my mind
I've been loving your eyes for so long
Watch it as it grows you can bet your soul

Ain't nobody stopping me
I am burning to run
I'm a goldmaker baby
I'm gonna go, baby, I'm gonna go make a son
Ain't nobody stopping me
I am burning to run
I'm a goldmaker baby
I'm gonna go make a son

Here we are again, baby
Let that light on your skin
Let it shine
Let me come closer, baby
Let me come closer, baby

Ain't nobody stopping me
I am burning to run
I'm a goldmaker baby
I'm gonna go make a son
Ain't nobody stopping me
I am burning to run, run, run, run, run
I'm a goldmaker baby
I'm gonna go make a son
