Cabaret

Gordon Lightfoot

All I can see is the sea and the sky And the sky is blue and the sea is green Yesterday's a cabaret Gowns of satin on ladies gay

Yesterday's a cabaret Sounds of laughter on faces gray Yesterday's a carousel Catch the ring and all will be well

From the coast of California Up to the Oregon border I've thumbed a thousand miles I guess Sitting in a roadside diner

The big trucks rollin' by I don't seem to know at times what's best And still I'd like to tell her That I miss her so, in north Ontario

If you're drivin' east to Reno Or north to Mendocino I hope you find your rainbow?s end This highway is my rainbow

And though I might regret it I'm so glad I said it way back when And still I'd like to tell her That I miss her so, in north Ontario
