

The Devil Is Calling

Gorgoroth

Go out and see the churches
How they are burning like hell
When the devil is calling, when heaven is falling Have you got a soul to save?
Now satan is raping the nuns with joy
Now jesus cries loud out in vain
There is no hope at all earth or in heaven when the angels have all been slain
Where were you when the devil asked for your heart?
Didn't you hear the calls from below
When you in betrayal
You see me now from whom you turned away.
Frigtened from your earthly domain
Forever covered in fog
Now even when you turned away
You followed your god like a dog
Now you all didn't have a soul to save know it will forever burn in hell.
