

Distance

Gorilla Biscuits

I feel the time go by
I feel the distance between you and me
You know I didn't want it
But now that we've got it
Gonna twist it
Gonna turn it around
I'm thinking of
The things you said
What it meant
What did it mean to you?
I always fuck up the best things

I feel the distance
Maybe you've missed it
I feel the distance
And it makes me sad
But not enough to turn away

I think about all the things we did
We don't do anymore
Is it too late?
Is it too late to
Mend the fence
Heal the wounds
Bridge the gap
Build it right to you
Your distance is killing me

I feel the distance
Maybe you've missed it
I feel the distance
And it makes me sad
But not enough to turn away
