

Machine Bitez #16

Gorillaz

Ahhh... The Pink Phantom, don't even talk to me about that Hang on, I gotta get that mother

But how you gotta chop him down when he an ethereal being?

I... I got a butterfly net

Think the phantom was in the trunk?

She was moving around in the boot so much we had to turn up the music, remember?

It was a heavy vibe

Under-badness, great under-badness

Spooky, wa-what, uh?

I spook easy - not to be confused with "speakeasy"

I went to one once, by accident
I got very confused and they kept on speaking to me and I would n't realize it was all a game and then they called the police
It was a "speak-difficult"
