Do you like driving in L.A., Noodle?
Driving down Route 101 during rush hour is harder than some of the deadliest battles I've been in Then you've been in loads of those
Deadly battles, not traffic jams

Did you ever trace your family tree?
Yeah, I did; I did a thorough one
Where did it go back to?
Oh, back to the Tudors
I was, um, related to a Tudor bishop, bishop Murdoc
So Tudor times, if you could imagine; take yourself back (Yeah)
(Yeah, I'm picturing it)
Down the alleyway, the alleyways of old London town
People emptying buckets out of windows
That- that sound like L.A.
