

New Gold

But in the magic cove, there's a pretty one
I asked her where it goes, 'cause I really want
I wonder if she knows that we're underwater
That's the way it goes in this city wonder

Moved to the spot, I'm one of a few
A whole lot of everything, but nothin' to do
Tilted in a Tesla, pardon the ex-wrestler
He dates Francesca, they on the Xannies
Liposuction scheduled for Granny
She want to save some, add to her fanny
Girls trip, Miami at the end of the year
Polluted-filled skies, trying to think clear
I heard the bad news while I was sheddin' a beer
Watch out from the cults, Paul Revere
We all play our part in the devil's cheer
Run to the hills 'cause the end is near

But in the magic cove, there's a pretty one
I asked her where it goes, 'cause I really want
I wonder if she knows that we're underwater
That's the way it goes in this city wonder

Yo, a desolate city where it hurts to smile
Ran into the Reverend since it's been a while
I'm reining in a rando', she's a social scandal
Gave ourselves a handle when it's too much to bear
ABC boys raided the mayor
Like Shaun, he's a Ryder, took on the dare
Now he's singin' like a birdy, pullin' on his hair
Trendin' on Twitter's what some of us live for Friendship's here, but now fuckin' revolving door
All of this a joke? Pauly Shore
Bullshit keeps comin', maybe I'm a Matador
What are we livin' for?

Are we all losin' our minds?
Because life got in the way (Hey, hey, hey)
They will be here just in time
Your replacement is here to stay (Ah-ah-ah-ah)

New gold, fool's gold
Everythin' will disappear (New gold)
Someone's out here
Who traveled far too many years (New gold)
To nowhere, nowhere
Nothin' here is ever real (New gold)
New gold, fool's gold (New gold)
Everythin' will disappear, disappear
Disappear, disappear, disappear
Disappear, disappear, disappear
Disappear, disappear, disappear
Disappear, disappear, disappear

But in the magic cove, there's a pretty one

I wonder if she knows that we're underwater

That's the way it goes in this city wonder
