I went to her cryin' Oh what a pity, she told me I see you chokin' on the tears you're holdin' My hands in the air, honey So what the hell honey? That's why I do what I do, yeah: to survive

I walk these streets for miles I'm holding back these tears in style I feel you burn inside me Yeah, yeah, yeah

We're fallen angels baby I make you feel so pretty You're such a beauty when you're On your knees baby I feel you walkin' I feel you talkin' You feel everything But there's nothing to me

I walk these streets for miles I'm holding back these tears in style I feel you burn inside me Yeah, yeah, yeah
