

Pulse

Gossling

Hold, listen to my pulse
I have a nervousness that must leave
Oh I will say I'm not
It won't help my want for this to be over

When the moment comes, it's like a wild fire spreads
Holding to my body so.

Slowly, I wait to find the has wrapped around me and won't let go
Darkness has led to distance, I wait in hope to find an end

Oh, I can hardly sleep, this has filled my chest and won't leave
Oh, it will stay all night, won't talk myself around, or stay calm

When the moment comes, it's like a wild fire spreads
Holding to my body so.

Slowly, I wait to find the has wrapped around me and won't let
Darkness has led to distance, I wait in hope to find an end Slowly, I wait to find the has wrapped around me and won't let
Darkness has led to distance, I wait in hope to find an end
