He's sick and tired everyday

You must step back, who do you think you're looking at How dare you go over my head?
You'd better shut your mouth and stand back
Or else give it a go, try climbing your way up here

Did he have a crush on you?
When we played like a baby when we were young
I'm sure you flirted some, flirted some, flirted some,
Quite some bit
Playing with your childhood memories, is it that fun?

My man is on another level
You can't even dream about this level
The one that got me next level

As you can see, another level
Don't bring it to me, get outta my way

Take your hands off of mine
Step back Step back
It won't be enough even if you're born again
Step back Step back
You're like a poison
To the good boys
They become lonelier as they drink more
He's sick and tired everyday

Don't you cross it, borderline
Step back Step back
This isn't the place for you
Step back Step back
What you tried to
Hide by weighing was
Your unrestrainable light heart
He's sick and tired everyday

Ay, does doing that make him yours? Listen to me
There's a lot more girls like you than you think
True or not
The world still goes around without you, around
You gotta get a good mind

Are you looking for fun?
Looking for some fun again?
Approach with a favor
Calculation is already so over
Like you've found a treasure ship above the ocean
Making a move
Start the transaction

You can't even stand this level
The world is our stange, our level
It's only possible next to me, level
As you can see, another level
Don't bring it to me, get outta my way

Take your hands off of mine
Step back Step back
It won't be enough even if you're born again

Your unrestrainable light heart
He's sick and tired everyday

All those days I've been together with him
Even with your playful flirting
I won't be swayed
Exchanging an emotion

That we call love is too much
Now stop and get lost, go back to your world
Don't delude yourself again

Boys are the same
All eyes on me when I appear
Everywhere there's a flash
Take pictures, take pictures, take pictures
Imagination is your freedom
Before you start doing things from the inside build up
The further you go, you'll get hurt
Girls, bring it on

Step back Step back Step back
Silly girl!
The only girl who live in a dream
Step back Step back Step back

Please stand out of my way, yeah
Don't bring it to me, get outta my way
