Go Go Let's Go Hey

Don't pretend like it's not true

Don't pretend you don't know

I already know everything

Now, accept everything

When I look at you

It's as if your face will burst

Don't hide anything

You can't help it

Don't act like it's not clear

Looks like you're gonna end up going crazy

Just try telling me

What's scaring you so much?

Why do you only watch from a distance

You know it's frustrating for me too

It'll be be good if you just stopped hiding things

Cause I already know everything

Just stop now, don't turn away Girl

Haven't you been looking at me all this time

Without these awkward excuses

Just tell me, please

Just Go Just Go Go Go

Show me everything, tell me now

Go Go Let's Go Hey

I can't take it anymore

I'm riding on love

I know you're shy but

Now's the time to come to me

When you look at me

It's also best that I don't hide anything

So don't hide anything

Aren't our hearts the same

Don't act like it's not clear

Looks like you're gonna end up going crazy

Just try telling me

What's scaring you so much?

Why do you only watch from a distance

You know it's frustrating for me too

It'll be be good if you just stopped hiding things

Cause I already know everything

Stop now, stop noticing Girl

Don't look at those other gazes

Come to my side and tell me

Tell me, please

Just Go Just Go Go Go

Just tell me now

Go Go Let's Go Hey

Come on now, tell me, Baby Right Now

I already know of your heart that's waiting

I know of your heart, that's shy

Get wrapped in my arms now, Baby Hey

Just Go Just Go Go Go

Just tell me now
