Turn the lights on
The lights turned on
The moment you came to me

The lights were dying inside of me
But you've put warmth in my heart
You've filled it up
Now we're breathing the same breath
It's getting blurry

The line between you and me
Breathe in
Breathe out
You and me now

You help me breathe
Deeper and deeper
You make me fly high
I feel it feel it
You help me breathe

My everything changes because of you
You keep me alive, I can feel it
I can feel your love
You help me breathe
You make me fly high

The feeling's hard to describe
Feels like I'm walking on a cloud, like a dream
Please be more than a fleeting dream
Something more meaningful
You are so amazing

The lights were dying inside of me
But you've put warmth in my heart
You've filled it up
Now we're breathing the same breath
It's getting blurry
The line between you and me
Breathe in
Breathe out
You and me now

You help me breathe
Deeper and deeper
You make me fly high
I feel it feel it
You help me breathe

My everything changes because of you
You keep me alive, I can feel it
I can feel your love
You help me breathe
You make me fly high

I know what you want
You don't have to say anything else, with me
I know it just looking into your eyes
The moment we're breathing together
That's enough for me
We keep going, down down down
I don't know where it ends, but you and me
It's beautiful, more than anything else
Please remember this moment
All I need is you

The lights were dying inside of me
But you've put warmth in my heart
You've filled it up
Now we're breathing the same breath
It's getting blurry
The line between you and me
Breathe in

Breathe out
You and me now

You help me breathe
Deeper and deeper
You make me fly high
I feel it feel it
You help me breathe

My everything changes because of you
You keep me alive, I can feel it
I can feel your love
You help me breathe
