Hundreds of confessions without success
I feel so unconfident should I just go back
I say I'll confess for sure
But it's pointless with no actions in the end
Can't keep my head up in front of you

I'm in love with you, why are these words so hard
I keep hesitating to say over and over again
Why is it so hard just to write a simple letter
I keep writing and tearing it over and over again

You may not feel the same way as I do
I may never see you again
That's what I'm afraid of
Don't have the courage to tell you
With this song let me
Open my heart to you

I love you, baby I
I love you (for a very long time)
I love you, baby I
I love you (I do)

All day long I wait for your reply
I keep writing and erasing to make sure
There's no mistake in my words
I accidentally say things that I don't mean
The dramatic lines
That I practiced in front of the mirror
Are all forgotten when I stand
In front of you, flustering me
My hands hesitate in front of yours

My heartbeat sound getting louder
You might hear it yeah
You may not feel the same way as I do
I may never see you again, that's what I'm afraid of
Don't have the courage to tell you
With this song let me open my heart to you

I love you, baby I
I love you (for a very long time)
I love you, baby I
I love you (I do)

My heart beats like a drum
My arms just wait for the day to hug you tight
My calendar just waits for the day marked red
My confession just waits for my courage
Though I am still a timid fool
I hope this song I wrote for countless nights
Deliver my sincerity
Take one side of the earphone in your hand
Shall we?

I love you, baby I
I love you (for a very long time)
I love you, baby I
I love you (I do)
