Encore! Encore!

Feels like we are still just kids
But the world calls us adults
Let's never grow up
Have we forgotten that time when we made a promise?

To us, that were experiencing everything for the first time
Everything about you was a gift
Remember that
Right now too, all of you

We will sing for you
We will sing for you
Encore! Encore!
We will sing for you
For the rest of the days too
Encore! Encore!

Late night, it suddenly occurred to me
The nervous laughs, the clumsy moves, all of it
Even though we can't turn back
We can just continue doing it
Now, comfortably

Now, goodnight
(Double B) Even in the brilliant blue skies
The sunsets and it is dyed by darkness
In no time, the blue moon shows
Saying, almost there

To us, that was experiencing everything for the first time
Everything about you was a gift
Remember that
Right now too, all of you

We will sing for you
We will sing for you
Encore! Encore!
We will sing for you
Even if the world ends
Encore! Encore!

The long time we spent together
There was no other reason, except for the fact that it was you
Even after a long time passes
Will you be here with me?

We will sing for you
Even when time passes
Encore! Encore!
We will sing for you
For the rest of the days too
Encore! Encore!
