

OUT THE DOOR

GOT7

Back in September
I would leave flowers at your door
Now it's December, woah
Wish we felt like we did before

If love is true
It shouldn't hurt this much to be falling
Baby, for you
I thought I gave you all that you wanted (Yeah)

You don't want me to stay
But you don't want me to go
Why do you play these games?
Baby, I'll never know
You don't want me to change
And you don't want me to grow
You'll be counting the days

Since I walked out the door, oh-oh-oh-oh
Since I walked out the door, oh-oh-oh-oh
Since I walked out the door, oh-oh-oh-oh
Since I walked out the door, oh-oh-oh-oh

If all that we had was enough like you promised
My lonely heart wouldn't feel so forgotten
Give me some space, see your face, every place that I go
Can't escape, can't erase, get away from you, no
Is it way too much if I opened my heart to say?
Thought that you were my somebody, oh
So I gave you all my love
But you broke my heart up anyways
Guess I don't need nobody

If love is true
It shouldn't hurt this much to be falling
Baby, for you
I thought I gave you all that you wanted

You don't want me to stay
But you don't want me to go
Why do you play these games
Baby, I'll never know
You don't want me to change
And you don't want me to grow
You'll be counting the days
Since I walked out the door (Out the door)

When the rain pours down and I'm feeling some way
Know it's fine, my dear, yeah, I'll be okay
When the sun comes out and you feel just the same
Know you're hurting too, and still thinking of me

If love is true
It shouldn't hurt this much to be falling
Baby, for you
I thought I gave you all that you wanted (Yeah)

You don't want me to stay
But you don't want me to go
Why do you play these games?
Baby, I'll never know
You don't want me to change
And you don't want me to grow
You'll be counting the days

Since I walked out the door, oh-oh-oh-oh
Since I walked out the door, oh-oh-oh-oh
Since I walked out the door, oh-oh-oh-oh
Since I walked out the door, oh-oh-oh-oh
