You are my playground You are my playground

When I was young, it helped me build my dreams
My small playground that was my
Everything in my young world
My own world in the old photos
The wonderland in my memories
That I dreamed of and played in

Now I'm an adult, so will you be my dream now?
I want to stay by your side and run around and play

You are my playground playground playground
In your heart,
Will I find that dream that I lost as a child?
You are my playground playground playground
I'll find a love
That is better than the one in my fantasies
You are my playground

The slide that I loved to go on as a child
And the swings that made me fly high in the sky
Your soft eyes and
Your voice that makes my heart rush

So I want you be my only one,
My eternal rhapsody
Now I realized that you are my wonderland

Now I'm an adult, so will you be my dream now?
I want to stay by your side and run around and play

You are my playground playground playground
In your heart,
Will I find that dream that I lost as a child?
You are my playground playground playground
I'll find a love
That is better than the one in my fantasies
You are my playground

Spread out your hidden wings
Sprinkle your magic powder on me
We'll hold hands and fly high

You are my playground playground playground
In your heart,
Will I find that dream that I lost as a child?
You are my playground playground playground
I'll find a love
That is better than the one in my fantasies
You are my playground

Everyday Everynight Baby you are my playground
Eternally forever You are my playground
You are my playground You are my playground
You are my playground You are my playground
