Wake me up with your sweet lips

Like it's nothing, like that

I see you

And I feel so calm today

Without knowing, I start to laugh

When you shine on me

I long for you

Do you feel the same?

Your red lips flicker before me
The look you gave me
Your eyes were so deep beautiful what I need
I'm still like that, you're still

Give me Your Sign, I'm waiting for you

Come back to me

Give me Your Sign, when are you going

To stop hesitating? Just come to me

Just give me your sign

How about you? Again today,

I'm only looking at your picture, tell me

Just give me your sign

I'm looking for you in the stars of the night sky

Now please come to me

Why did you change? oh baby who are you

You're not the you I used to know

Why am I (the same?)

Why do you treat me like I'm a shadow?

Something's wrong

The accessory we had on together it's becoming meaningless

Even all of you that has been embedded in me

I'm diving so deep (I'm diving so deep)

I know you're looking at me (look at me)

I can't do this anymore, I need you now

Give me Your Sign, I'm waiting for you

Come back to me

Give me Your Sign, when are you going
To stop hesitating? Just come to me

Just give me your sign
How about you? Again today,
I'm only looking at your picture, tell me
Just give me your sign
I'm looking for you in the stars of the night sky
Now please come to me

In my heart, time has stopped
I'm a fool who only thinks about you
I can't do anything without you
At the end of my long days you used to be there
But now I'm all alone, don't let go of me

Don't let me go girl, I need you now

Give me Your Sign, I'm waiting for you
Come back to me
Give me Your Sign, when are you going
To stop hesitating? Just come to me

Just give me your sign
How about you? Again today,
I'm only looking at your picture, tell me
Just give me your sign
I'm looking for you in the stars of the night sky
Now please come to me
