

Stop Stop It (; Hajihajima)

GOT7

Stop it stop stop stop stop it
Whenever you do that it drives me crazy
When you look into my eyes with that smile
I want to go hug you with all my guts
Stop it stop stop stop stop it
When I feel your touch it triggers the alarm
Whenever we talk you slightly hold me by the arm
I want to turn around and hug you tight, stop it

I'm holding it because you say no
Like a child in front of a shop window
Can't have it but I can't let it go
When I close my eyes, whenever I see your pretty face
I bet you never know how hard I try yeah~

Stop it stop stop stop stop it
Whenever you do that it drives me crazy
When you look into my eyes with that smile
I want to go hug you with all my guts
Stop it stop stop stop stop it
When I feel your touch it triggers the alarm
Whenever we talk you slightly hold me by the arm
I want to turn around and hug you tight

Stop it, you're driving me crazy
Stop it, I can't take it anymore
Stop it, please stop baby stop it
Stop it, please stop please stop it

Try this yourself, see if you can stand it
This sheer torture, far beyond tolerance level
You don't know cause you've never been through it
Every single day I test my patience

I wouldn't say this if you weren't so pretty
With your delightful smile, you make me a fool
I am going crazy out of my mind
I see you everyday but I'd rather not see you

Stop it stop stop stop stop it
Whenever you do that it drives me crazy
When you look into my eyes with that smile
I want to go hug you with all my guts
Stop it stop stop stop stop it
When I feel your touch it triggers the alarm
Whenever we talk you slightly hold me by the arm
I want to turn around and hug you tight

Stop it, don't push me any further, you say we're only friends
Then put your arm around my shoulders
And walk arm in arm, just driving me crazy
Stop it, my heart is pounding, my face is getting red
Its hard to pretend to be cool yeah~

Do you understand my mind, don't know if you can
Does it always take so long to choose your man
You should know by now, why are you doing this exceptionally?

Am I so different from your prince charming?

I'm an alright guy, I really am
I'm a good boy
Just let me bat and I'll hit a grand slam
To me you're more precious than a treasure
It would be the greatest honour if you would give me a chance

Stop it, you're driving me crazy
Stop it, I can't take it anymore
Stop it, please stop baby stop it
Stop it, please stop please stop it

Stop it stop stop stop it
Whenever you do that it drives me crazy
When you look into my eyes with that smile
I want to go hug you with all my guts
Stop it stop stop stop it
When I feel your touch it triggers the alarm
Whenever we talk you slightly hold me by the arm
I want to turn around and hug you tight, stop it
